

A man and a woman are standing in a field of tall grass. The man is on the left, wearing sunglasses and a dark vest over a t-shirt. The woman is on the right, wearing sunglasses and a patterned sweater. They are both pulling on a rope that extends from the left towards a doghouse on the right. The doghouse is a small, dark structure with a gabled roof and a dog's head visible in the opening. The background features stylized, swirling patterns in shades of orange and yellow.
